UCF Catalog Course Description

Student practice in performing in a concert dance work for public performance

Learning Outcomes

In this course, the student will:

- Develop an understanding of concert dance choreography as a unique art form.
- Experience working with designers and dancers on a new dance work.
- Participate in the rehearsal and performance process of a new dance work.
- Participate in public performances of the UCF Annual Spring Dance Concert.
- Develop a sense of self and pride through the work accomplished.

Methodology/Assessment

Students will achieve these learning outcomes through participation in rehearsals, concert showings, technical rehearsals, and performances of new dance works created for the UCF Annual Spring Dance Concert.

Required Materials for This Course

- There is no textbook for this course.

Attendance Policy

- It is imperative you attend and participate fully in every rehearsal, dance concert showings, technical rehearsals, and all performances. As a performer in this course, you are part of a professional training program that places as much emphasis on self-discipline as it does skill development. Careless attendance/tardiness and poor attitude/behavior WILL NOT BE TOLERATED!!!
- No unexcused absences will be tolerated. Attendance is expected at all auditions, rehearsals, concert showings, technical rehearsals, and performances for which you are called, unless you have made specific arrangements with the Professor/Choreographer.
- Any unexcused absence from concert showings, technical rehearsals and/or performances will be immediate cause for dismissal from the concert and a failing grade in this course, unless you have permission IN WRITING to be away from the Professor and/or Choreographer. Make sure there is documentation to prove you are excused to miss!!!
- As well, tardiness will not be tolerated for rehearsals, concert showings, technical rehearsals, and performances. Continual tardiness will be cause for removal from the concert, and your final semester grade will be lowered accordingly.
- Your final semester grade will be lowered one half letter grade for every tardy you accrue at auditions, concert showings, technical rehearsals, and dress rehearsals on campus and at Trinity Preparatory Theatre. You will be held responsible for checking in with the Professor BEFORE your required call times.

A “no excuse accepted” policy will be instituted with regard to call times once we relocate to the Orlando Repertory Theatre for technical rehearsals and performances.

Not knowing how to get there, too much traffic, “my ride didn’t show up in time,” and other lame excuses for not meeting your required time calls will not be acceptable!! PLAN AHEAD so you don’t get into trouble.

- It is the policy of the University to reasonably accommodate absences due to observed religious holidays and/or University-sanctioned events whereby a student will be representing UCF. However, the student is responsible for any material covered during the absence(s). You must inform the Professor in writing two weeks prior to being away. Please also notify the Production Stage Manager and your Choreographer(s) who will be affected by your absence(s) so alternate arrangements can be made to cover for you.
- Emergencies will be handled individually and at the discretion of the Professor and Choreographer. Written verification will be required for extenuating circumstances.
- DO NOT ATTEND REQUIRED CALLS IF YOU ARE ILL!!

Contact the Professor and Choreographer immediately and seek medical attention. You may return when you are not infectious. If you miss auditions, rehearsals, concert showings, technical rehearsals and/or performances due to illness, see a doctor or go to the Student Health Center – you must provide the Professor with written documentation the first day you return or the absence will not be counted as excused.

If you are unable to attend a required call, it is your responsibility to notify the Professor and Choreographer and Production Stage Manager of your absence via phone. Failure to do so will result in the absence being marked as unexcused, even if you provide written documentation when you return.

Extra Credit

No extra credit is offered in this class.

Incomplete Grades

The University of Central Florida catalog lists the following information regarding “incomplete grades”:

A grade of “I” (Incomplete) may be assigned by the Professor when a student is unable to complete a course due to extenuating circumstances, and when all requirements can be completed in a short time following the end of the term. The student is responsible to arrange with the Professor for the completion of the requirements of the course. Effective with incomplete grades assigned in the Fall semester 1997 and thereafter, a student CANNOT graduate from the University with an “I” on the transcript. The incomplete must be changed within one year of the last day of the semester attempted or prior to graduation from the University, whichever comes first. Unresolved incomplete grades automatically will be changed to “F” by the Registrar’s Office. Unresolved “I” grades in courses graded with “S” or “U” will be converted to “U.”

Grading Policy

It is the assumption of the Professor that each student in this course begins with a clean slate upon which they build and earn points towards their final grade. Grades are not “given” – they are “earned.” Therefore, equal weight will be placed on attendance at auditions, rehearsals, concert showings, design meetings, technical rehearsals, and quality of work and professional behavior/attitude.

Any lowering of the final grade due to attendance problems will be completed once all assignment grades have been averaged. Grading questions should be discussed with the Professor by private appointment only.

The grading scale will be:

Letter Grade	Percentage
A	95%
A-	91%
B+	90%
B	85%
B-	80%
C+	75%
C	70%
C-	65%
D+	60%
D	55%
D-	50%
F	49% and below
