Course Description

This course is an introduction to humanities ideas, research methods, and approaches to scholarship and creative work. Students will be introduced to diverse tools and approaches for critically examining intellectual, cultural, and creative human expression. While we will discuss diverse subjects over the semester, there is a common unifying theme: “Responding to the Dominant.” Together, we will encounter Native American literature and film, the street art of such artists as Jean Michel Basquiat, and subcultural protest music in the genres of reggae, punk and hip hop. Through an interdisciplinary approach, we will explore how these expressions embody responses to colonialism, racism, economic disparities, oppression and discrimination, not only through words, but images, sounds, and the very act and physical locations of expression.

Course Texts

Required Texts

- Silko, Leslie M. Ceremony. New York: Penguin Books, 2006. (Note: any edition will suffice).
- Guerrilla Girls. Bitches, Bimbos, and Ballbreakers: The Guerrilla Girls' Illustrated Guide to Female Stereotypes. NPenguin Books, 2003.

Optional Texts

- King, Thomas. The Truth About Stories: A Native Narrative. Toronto: House of Anansi Press, 2006. (Note: These five lectures were broadcast on CBC's Ideas and are available via the CBCwebsite. It is recommended that you listen to these lectures and read along if you so desire.)

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- Understand the importance of voice and agency
- Develop the necessary skills to critically view and respond to cultural productions
- Demonstrate the ability to communicate critical thinking through written assignments
- Appreciate subcultural and minority productions
- Critically discuss the humanities
- Demonstrate a better understanding of the humanities

Grading Scheme

| A- | 90% – 93% | Excellent, exceeds average understanding as evidenced in course work and goes well beyond basic understanding. |
| B+ | 87% – 89% | Very good. Far above average, fully meets or exceeds average understanding as evidenced in course work, fully understands the basics and goes beyond that level. |
| B | 83% – 86% | Very good. Above average, fully meets average understanding as evidenced in course work, fully understands the basics and can engage material somewhat beyond that level. |
| B- | 80 – 82% | Very good. Just above average, fully meets expectations for basic understanding as evidenced in coursework and fully understands the basics and can engage material at that level. |
| C+ | 77 – 79% | Slightly above average, fully meets expectations for basic understanding as evidenced in coursework and understands the basics. |
| C | 73 – 76% | Average, meets minimum expectations and satisfies course requirements. |
| C- | 70 – 72% | Slightly below average, meets bare minimum expectations and satisfies course requirements. |
| D+ | 67 – 69% | Lacking in quality. Below average, meets most minimum expectations and satisfies all or most course requirements. |

| | | |
|----|----------|--|
| D | 64 – 66% | Lacking in quality. Below average, meets many minimum expectations and satisfies all or most course requirements. |
| D- | 61 – 63% | Greatly lacking in quality. Far below average, but meets most minimum expectations and satisfies most course requirements with minimal understanding evidenced in course work. |
| F | 0% – 60% | Fails to meet minimum expectations in understanding and course work as evidenced by performance and submission of graded elements. |

Assignments and Tests

Below are general descriptions of the assignments and tests you will be taking in this class. Please take note of the due dates. For those assignments with a "no later than" clause, consider submitting early in the semester to lighten your load toward the end of the semester. The closing time for both creative assignments is 10 a.m. on the due date. Both assignments will be submitted to the designated discussion board under the Discussion Index.

| Grading Item | Weight | Due Date | |
|---------------------------------|---------------|--|--|
| In-class exams | 60% (15% x 4) | Sept 15, Oct 4, Oct 25, Dec 8 | At the completion of each module, students will be tested on the major themes addressed in the module. There will be an in-class exam on each module. |
| Primary Source Quizzes | 24% (8% x 3) | Sept 13, Sept 29, Oct 20 | In the literature, film, and art modules, students will be quizzed on the primary source. In the literature module, the primary source is the Ceremony, the film The Fast Runner, and the Guerrilla Girls book. All of these quizzes will be taken online. They will open at 2:30 p.m. on the due date. |
| Syllabus Quiz | 1% | As Soon as Possible | As of Fall 2014, faculty members are required to document student progress. If you have not yet begun this course, please complete the following academic activity as soon as possible, but by no later than September 1. Failure to do so may result in a grade of F. Please complete the short syllabus quiz located in the "Quizzes" section of the syllabus. |
| Guerrilla Girls Collage Project | 5% | Due no later than Oct 20 at 11:00 a.m. Submit early to be safe! | Together, we are reading the Guerrilla Girls' illustrated guide to feminism. This project is meant to create a Guerrilla Girl-esque work of art, where factual evidence from the required reading and apply it to contemporary advertisements. On the other hand, it is also meant to draw your attention to the "sunny side" of institutionalized sexism. 4. Diversity Statement
5. UCF Cares

Students with Disabilities

It is my goal that this class be an accessible and welcoming experience for all students, including those with disabilities that may impact learning in this class. If anyone believes the design of this course poses barriers to effectively participating and/or demonstrating learning in this course, please meet with me (with or without a Student Disability Services (SDS) accommodation letter) to discuss reasonable options or adjustments. During our discussion, I may suggest the possibility/necessity of your contacting SDS (Ferrell Commons 185; 407-823-2371; sds@ucf.edu) to talk about academic accommodations. You are welcome to talk to me at any point in the semester about course design concerns, but it is always best if we can talk at least one week prior to the need for any modifications. I sincerely encourage any students with disabilities to speak with me during office hours to ensure that they are able to engage in the course and complete assignments on an equal footing with their fellow classmates. My door is always open to discuss this important matter.

Plagiarism and Academic Integrity

As reflected in the UCF creed, integrity and scholarship are core values that should guide our conduct and decisions as members of the UCF community. Plagiarism and cheating contradict these values, and so are very serious academic offenses. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, or suspension or expulsion from the university. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the University's Rules of Conduct (see <http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/>). Plagiarism and Cheating of any kind on an examination, quiz, or assignment will result at least in an "F" for that assignment (and may, depending on the severity of the case, lead to an "F" for the entire course) and may be subject to appropriate referral to the Office of Student Conduct for further action. See the UCF Golden Rule for further information. Many incidents of plagiarism result from students' lack of understanding about what constitutes plagiarism. However, you are expected to familiarize yourself with UCF's policy on plagiarism. All work you submit must be your own scholarly and creative efforts. UCF's Golden Rule defines plagiarism as follows: "whereby another's work is used or appropriated without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student's own."

E-mail Access

You will be expected to have daily access to the internet and email, since I will be emailing you regularly about assignment updates, additions and changes. All students at UCF are required to obtain a Knight's Email account and check it regularly for official university communications. If you do not own a computer, there are computers accessible to you in all UCF's computer labs, and most computer labs have computers connected to the internet. For further information on computer labs, please see the following website: http://registrar.sdes.ucf.edu/webguide/index_quickfind.aspx.

Diversity Statement

The University of Central Florida recognizes that our individual differences can deepen our understanding of one another and the world around us, rather than divide us. In this class, people of all ethnicities, genders and gender identities, religions, ages, sexual orientations, disabilities, socioeconomic backgrounds, regions, and nationalities are strongly encouraged to share their rich array of perspectives and experiences. If you feel your differences may in some way isolate you from UCF's community or if you have a need of any specific accommodations, please speak with the instructor early in the semester about your concerns and what we can do together to help you become an active and engaged member of our class and community.

UCF Cares

During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges. You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.

Instructor Policies

E-mail correspondence

Please use your Knights e-mail account whenever corresponding with your instructor. Ensure that the Course Code and Section Number appear in the subject line of any e-mail sent to the instructor. Think of an e-mail as a formal letter when corresponding with instructors (as opposed to a text message). Begin with a salutation (a greeting) and conclude with your name. Be respectful and considerate in your language and re-read your e-mail before sending.

Late Penalties

There are only two assignments in this course outside of the tests. Given that both assignments are creative pieces that have a "no later than" due date, there will be no assignments accepted past those dates.

Make-Up Exam Policy

There are no make-up exams offered in this course. Ensure that you are in-class, on time on the day of the exam.

Open Door Policy

I am always available to talk about this class or your educational experience in general. Feel free to stop by or make an appointment at any point over the semester. If you ever require clarification on your grades or concepts discussed within the course, make an appointment to come and chat.

Extra Credit Policy

There will be no extra credit offered in this course.
