Catalog Description

This three-credit course is a continued examination of vocal and choral literature, planning skills and rehearsal techniques for choral groups. It holds a prerequisite of MUE 4331.

Purpose of Course

Secondary Choral Methods II is designed to develop and exercise teaching skill for success in the high school choral classroom. This course addresses the musical and non-musical aspects of a beginning choral conductor/teacher. As a conductor/teacher, you will need the ability to reflect critically about your teaching by intentionally examining pedagogy, materials, and personal resources related to the teaching/learning transaction.

Objectives

- Continue developing your philosophy of choral music education.
- Explore teaching as imagination: the art of imagining or brainstorming for instruction under a guided system of score analysis, a system for development of teaching strategies, and an understanding of the learner and learning context.
- Explore concepts of choral tone including diction, vowels, and voice-building techniques.
- Develop and understanding of non-musical responsibilities of the conductor/teacher (including developing and managing a program, scheduling, budget, etc.).
- Examine relevant developmental, social, and vocal issues in the secondary choral classroom
- Develop a plan for classroom management.
- Understand and demonstrate how to effectively prepare and plan for rehearsals.
- Experiment with various teaching tasks including vocal warm-ups, sight-reading, teaching from the keyboard, and rehearsal of repertoire. Assignments and Teaching Rounds
- Be able to play all of the choral parts for an SATB octavo. Project 1 (Mid-term)
- Select quality repertoire that is appropriate (balanced, diverse) and discern implication of repertoire-as-curriculum. Project 2
- Create a portfolio of teaching materials and resources for use in interviews and their first job. Project 3
- Synthesize knowledge in an organized collection. Project 4

As of Fall 2014, all faculty members are required to document students' academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, please complete the following academic activity by the end of the first week of classes, or as soon as possible after adding the course, but no later than January 12th. Failure to do so will result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid. The academic activity is attendance and participation at the first two classes.

Materials

- Conducting Baton (www.newland.com and www.mollard.com)
- Blank DVD+RW
- Berol prismacolor pencils or artist quality pencils (black, brown, orange, red, blue, green), ruler
- Highlighter pens (Sanford, yellow and pink)

Academic integrity	UCF is committed to promoting a culture of academic integrity where faculty and students work together to meet our personal, professional, and social responsibilities. A degree from UCF is only valuable to the extent it reflects valid assessments of student learning. Misrepresenting your learning on tests, projects, reports, or papers invalidates your grades and tarnishes the credibility of UCF. While collaboration is encouraged in the learning and studying process, you should assume that all tests, quizzes, etc. require your individual effort unless explicitly directed otherwise. Unauthorized collaboration, whether voluntary or not, is cheating. Unauthorized use of materials during a text, quiz, or other assessment is cheating. Regarding papers and projects, one of the core fluencies that students need to demonstrate is the ability to discern information that is common to the public from the intellectual property of individuals. Use of protected ideas, processes, or language without attribution or proper citation is plagiarism. Cheating, dishonesty, or plagiarism is grounds for grade reduction or failure in this course. Please review the behavior standards at: http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/11_behavior.html

The UCF Creed

Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

Integrity	I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.
Scholarship	I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.
Community	I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.
Creativity	I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.
Excellence	I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

Attendance, Punctuality, and Participation

Students are expected to attend all classes. Your presence at each class enriches our collective learning experience. With the awareness that illness and emergencies can occur, students are allotted two absences without academic penalty. See chart below explaining absences. Three tardies equal one absence. In cases where extended absences may be required (severe injury, grave emergencies, or death in immediate family), please contact me so that we can make arrangements.

Our class is an open invitation to think and dialogue with others on topics of importance to music educators. Arrive to class prepared and willing to contribute your ideas and opinions to the discussion. Twenty percent of your course grade is determined by your participation. This includes small and large group discussion, teaching rounds, the preparation of reading assignments, and in-class assignments.

Grading

Graded tests and materials in this course will be returned individually only by request. You can access your scores at any time using the Grade Book function of Webcourses.

Attendance and Participation (175 pts)	35%
Assignments/Teaching Rounds (150 pts)	30%
Mid-Term Piano Proficiency (50 pts)	10%
Repertoire Project and Presentation (50 pts)	10%
Final Teaching Round (25 pts)	5%

Projects

Project 1 – Mid-Term:

The purpose of the mid-term demonstration is for you to play all of the choral parts for an SATB octavo in a rehearsal setting.

1) Music will be provided.

Project 2 – Repertoire:

The purpose of the repertoire project is to put into practice the selection of age-appropriate literature that includes balanced, diverse, and quality repertoire. You will discern the implication of repertoire-as-curriculum.

1) You will select choral literature for a high school program. Create a fall concert program featuring three distinctly different ensembles.

- Choir One – A same-gendered, training ensemble/ freshmen choir.
- Choir Two – A mixed-gender concert choir of 70-members with a 3 to 1 ratio of women to men.
- Choir Three – A select ensemble of 20 students, balanced; either mixed or same-gendered.

2) Provide a typed repertoire list for each choir including voicing, title, composer, publisher, and octavo number, current price, and length in minutes and seconds. Select 25 minutes of music for each ensemble. If possible, include scores for reference.

3) Provide a curricular justification for your choices reflecting both educational and programmatic concerns. Be prepared to present repertoire list to peers.

Project 3 – Portfolio

The purpose of the portfolio project is to begin gathering together materials in preparation of your first interview. Be prepared to share your portfolio with the rest of the class.

Portfolios may include the following:

- Resume (required)
- Philosophy of Education
- DVD examples of conducting
- Lesson plans (from this class)
- Sample rubrics from various method classes
- Awards or honors
- Observations from cooperative teachers
- All materials from MUE 4331

Project 4 – Notebook

The purpose of the notebook project is to ensure all materials collected from in and outside the class remain organized for future use. This is especially pertinent to those who do not student teaching the semester immediately following this course.

Note: Contents of syllabus (e.g., dates, assignments, grading) are subject to change during the semester. It is the student's responsibility to monitor syllabus changes and download all course materials on the Music Department website (www.music.ucf.edu).
