Course Description:

- a. A 50-minutes private lesson and a 50-minutes violin/ viola class weekly. (VIOLIN I-VI) A weekly violin/ viola class consists of roughly three parts, technical lecture, playing class and listening. Individual private lesson time will be scheduled during the first week of the class.
- b. 13 lessons in one semester, participation in forums and area recitals, a scale exam and a jury are required.
- c. Occasional Webcourse Assignments
- d. Participation in the forums and area recital is a part of the course. (You are expected to perform once in either forum or area recital to earn good grade.)
- e. You need to play two contrasting pieces or movements in the final jury in front of string faculties; at least one with the piano accompaniment, and at least one, memorized
- f. You are required to attend for your classmates' or professor's performance or concert.
- g. By federal regulations, the attendance during the first week is required to start the course, otherwise the financial aid you might be receiving would be suspended.

Course Requirements:

- a. Students in my class were admitted by audition only.
- b. You need to have well-adjusted violin/ viola and the bow with decent bow hair.
- c. You need to buy your own music.

Goals:

Syllabus and Schedule Subject to Revision
Created by Ayako Yonetani, August 17, 2018

Learn how to play the violin/ effectively and how to develop listening skills.

- a. Learn how to play in tune
- b. Learn how to produce different kind of sound by mastering different bow strokes.
- c. Develop musicianship by the study of violin literature.
- d. Improve the discipline of the study of the violin.

Hopefully you would learn to enrich one's life with ensemble playing, and you would understand music much better than when you first came to the class.

Course Objectives and studio rules:

All students should strive for the highest level of proficiency in each of the following areas:

1. Technique-general craftsmanship; knowledge of basics, exercises and studies.
 - a. Sustained tone: steady, controlled pitch and long tone

Evaluation Procedures

A. Grades and class

Prompt consistent attendance required.

- i. If you miss a scheduled lesson for any reason other than sudden illness or uncontrollable emergency, you must notify Dr. Yonetani 24 hours prior to the lesson.
- ii. Dr. Yonetani shall determine the validity of the reason for the student's absence. In case of illness or emergency, prompt communication with the teacher is required. Failure to give advance notice when a lesson must be missed will result in an unexcused absence.
- iii. In case of lesson schedule changes because of Dr. Yonetani's concert trips or school duty, make-up lesson will be scheduled. Students are encouraged to sign up for the make-up lessons. If you do not, you would not be penalized. (Sign-up sheet will be posted at least two weeks prior to the changes.)
- iv. Unexcused absences from four or more lesson may result in a grade "F" in the course.
- v. Lesson assignments will be given according to individual student's progress. However, students are expected to prepare scale, basics, and etude beside pieces for each lesson without specifically being assigned that week. It is a part of your technique warm up.
- vi. If you did not have the piece memorized, prepare a Xerox copy for Dr. Yonetani to write comments on. Bring a recording device such as iPhone and a piano part to the lesson
- vii. You need to tape your lesson and on the next lesson, you will submit the typed summary of the last lesson.

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF's Rules of Conduct at <http://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc>. According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in

1. Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.
2. Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else's efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.

3. Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor's PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.
4. Falsifying or misrepresenting the student's own academic work.
5. Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another's work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student's own.
6. Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.
7. Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, consult the International Center for Academic Integrity

<<http://academicintegrity.org>>.

For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see "Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices" <<http://wpacouncil.org/node/9>>.

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF's student handbook, The Golden Rule <<http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/docs/goldenrule.pdf>>. UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students' education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student's official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see <<http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade>>.

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) <<http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/>> (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety Statement

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide's physical location and review the online version at <http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html>.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see <<http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF>> (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <<https://my.ucf.edu>> and logging in. Click on "Student Self Service" located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue "Personal Information" heading on the Student Center screen, click on "UCF Alert", fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click "Apply" to save the changes, and then click "OK."
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (<<https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk>>).

Campus Safety Statement for Students in Online-Only Courses

Though most emergency situations are primarily relevant to courses that meet in person, such incidents can also impact online students, either when they are on or near campus to participate in other courses or activities or when their course work is affected by off-campus emergencies. The following policies apply to courses in online modalities.

Make-Up Assignments for Authorized University Events or Co-curricular Activities

Students who represent the university in an authorized event or activity (for example, student-athletes) and who are unable to meet a course deadline due to a conflict with that event must provide the instructor with documentation in advance to arrange a make-up. No penalty will be applied. For more information, see the UCF policy at <<http://policies.ucf.edu/documents/4-401.1MakeupAssignmentsForAuthorizedUniversityEventsOrCocurricularActivities.pdf>>

Religious Observances

Students must notify their instructor in advance if they intend to miss class for a religious observance. For more information, see the UCF policy at <<http://regulations.ucf.edu/chapter5/documents/5.020ReligiousObservancesFINALOct17.pdf>>.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

Students who are deployed active duty military and/or National Guard personnel and require accommodation should contact their instructors as soon as possible after the semester begins and/or after they receive notification of deployment to make related arrangements.
