COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Theatre 5910 is a graduate theatre practicum that fosters a “practice as research” approach to studying theatre. Students should engage in an approved practice-based project throughout the semester. These activities may include, but not limited to, directing a scene or a fully produced production, devising a performance, or providing dramaturgy to a production team.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

To encourage practice led research projects
To develop an understanding of the relationship between theory/research and practice
To practice applying research, theories, and methods to practical work
To reflect on the process through writing and presentations

REQUIREMENTS:

Complete and present the project (10 points)
Document the process (10 points)
Please journal through the semester to reflect on your work and the challenges you encounter during your research process. Be as specific as possible
Provide relevant research (10 points)
Complete reflection paper (10 points)
