

THE 2000 OW60 SYLLABUS

Module 0.4 - Your Syllabus

Syllabus-

This is usually a place where students tend to skip and/or tune out. SUCCESS FOR THIS COURSE REQUIRES THAT YOU READ ALL OF THIS AND OTHER CONTENT PAGES. As a speed reader, I know how difficult this can be. DON'T skip around. I want you to succeed. Take the time to read it all. Refresh your memory from time to time here. Yes. It is that important.

Course Description

It can be argued that most live entertainments developed from theatre. This course is an introductory overview of the arts and crafts of live theatrical venues. We will begin with, 'what is theatre and how did it begin?' What kinds of shows and styles of theatrical live entertainment can I see and how have they evolved? What kind of theatre space is this? Who are the people in my theatre program? What are their roles? Who decides if a show is good or bad? How do I assess the quality of a show? How do they pull it all together? What goes on in behind and in front of the curtain? Whose voices do American playwrights represent and what are their backgrounds? The class will examine the major elements of theatre and answer each of the previous questions.

NOTE: All instructors/faculty are required to document students' academic activity at the beginning of each course. This is done automatically by a recorded attendance or any grade assigned in the first week of class whether online or in a physical classroom.

Course Objectives

- Objective One – Upon completion of this course the student will be able to identify and discuss the basic elements of the origin of traditional theatre and the basic elements of the of the top live entertainment venues in the US and how they began and how some have evolved.
- Objective Two – Upon completion of this course the student should be able to: define the major players and their roles in each entertainment venue
- Objective Three – Upon completion of this class the student should be able to: evaluate the quality and describe some differences in the styles of each entertainment venue

Course Requirements

Attendance at one professional live approved performance venue or approved professional training venue for the semester is required. The student will write a review paper about the performance. To fully experience live theatre, attendance is required. Attendance is designed to aid the development of an understanding of the elements of theatre and to foster an appreciation for the art. (However, like film, you may not enjoy every play. Keep looking. The magic- when you find it- is worth the search.)

You will also be required to write A Three TO Four PAGE PAPER. Please be aware that each venue is likely to have a ticket cost that you will be required to pay in order to attend. The shows you will see are presented at UCF Theatre and tickets may be obtained via the box office at 407-823-1500.

Alternate Venues will be considered only for those students living in cities other than Orlando. An Alternate Venue is any theatrical event not on the pre-approved list featured below. For students outside of Orlando wishing to have an Alternate Venue, seek instructor approval before purchasing tickets. Many companies do not refund unused tickets. Contact the instructor for Alternate Venue approval in advance of ticket purchase.

Two available Pre-Approved shows are at UCF this semester. The first is...

SHE KILLS MONSTERS

By Qui Nguyen
Black Box: September 20 - 30

A comedic romp into fantasy role-playing games and '90s pop culture, Agnes Evans leaves her childhood home following the death of her teenage sister Tilly. Finding Tilly's notebook, Agnes stumbles into a journey of discovery and adventure in the imaginary world that was Tilly's refuge.

Theatre UCF: Box Office

theatre.cah.ucf.edu

Theatre UCF seeks to develop theatre artists of the highest quality. We provide our students with the training, education, and experiences necessary for the successful pursuit of professional theatre careers.

Cost: $20 standard, $10 UCF ID

The second UCF approved show is...

HOT MIKADO

Book and lyrics adapted by David H. Bell • Music adapted and arranged by Rob Bowman
Main Stage:
October 11 - 21

A hilarious update of Gilbert and Sullivan's perennial classic, Hot Mikado combines Japanese design with popular American song and dance. In a land where laws sentence people to death for almost any indiscretion, jazz, blues and gospel are spoken fluently.

The above poster art is NOT from the UCF productions. The art is a visual 'place holder' to give you an idea of the play.

NOTE: Get your Show Paper play seen as soon as you can schedule it.

Do you know what these people got wrong during the Running of the Bulls?

No, it was not wearing sandals. It was bad timing. Book your tickets NOW. They do sell out. Don't get on the wrong end of the bull this semester with the Show Paper Assignment.

Investigate the schedule and secure tickets from the box office. Do this Now (or after approval). You are required to locate, secure tickets and pay for the theatrical venue you choose to attend and review. By or before the end of the first week of class you should try to book your ticket reservation.

Any alternate professional venue must be approved by Instructor before August, 31, 2018.

PLEASE DO NOT SECURE Alternate Venue TICKETS UNTIL YOUR VENUE IS APPROVED. (Obviously, if an approved UCF production, go ahead!) The company or venue might not be able to refund your payment. If your venue does not meet the requirements, you will need to choose a different venue right away. If you have questions about locating a venue or questions about your choice- please let the Instructor know right away. For people who live in or near Orlando Florida, you must attend UCF's productions.

OCTOBER 29TH IS THE DATE YOU MUST TURN IN YOUR SHOW PAPERS. MORE ON THIS PROCESS WILL BE POSTED. You will be required to have your ticket stamped and a digital pic of this included with your digital submission. More on this will be coming.

Missed Assignments/ Make-Ups/ Extra Credit - There will be no late assignments, no make- ups or extra credit.

COURSE EVALUATION:

Grade Scale:

The instructor reserves the right to adjust the syllabus according to the needs of the class.

 The shows, materials, and ideas covered during this class may express adult or controversial themes as well as strong language.

*Assignments will be based on 100 point scale.

MAJOR ASSIGNMENTS

Show Paper (300pts) Format for review to be posted later. (Show Paper Assignment)

Quizzes

It will rain Quizzes. Each quiz is composed of Ten or more Questions and will include the required material covered each week in Modules. The format for quizzes may include multiple choice, short answer, and true and false. All material covered in modules is considered material for assessment for quizzes unless otherwise noted in the Module. Create an outline of the material covered in each Module as you are reading it. Have it with you when you take the Quiz. The Quizzes are timed and may only be attempted once. They also must be taken in a timely manner as they will close after they are opened whether you take them or not. Your Instructor recommends that you review the outline and material before you take each Quiz.

You will have only X minutes (varies depending on the length of the Quiz) and one attempt to take each quiz. Please make sure that you are ready to take the entire quiz once you begin. Once you click on "begin assessment" the clock begins. When the time limit is up - you will not be able to go back and finish the quiz. Each Quiz will note the time available for each Quiz.

The plays, materials, and ideas covered during this class may express adult or controversial themes as well as strong language. If this presents a problem for you, please see the instructor immediately to access your chances for success in the course. Topics of sex and violence are inherently political historically. Expect to have questions raised that may raise your hackles. The professor is going to engage you as 'devils' advocate in ways intended to inform your personal choices for yourselves. Some views expressed will not even be the position of the Instructor. This is NOT a high school-hand holding-standardized test kind of course.

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS SHOULD BE MADE WITH YOUR SYLLABUS IN HAND. DO NOT EXPECT CLASS SCHEDULES, TESTS, OR DUE DATES TO SHIFT. WE WILL HOLD CLASS/DROP MODULES & QUIZZES EVERY DAY WE ARE SCHEDULED- ESPECIALLY JUST BEFORE HOLIDAYS.

(NOTE: The Finals Day for this class will be announced multiple times. As this is an on-line course, it will be delivered much like a giant, honking Quiz. You will be given a span of three Finals days to execute your Final Exam. More about this will be posted much later.)

The following will be counted as excused absences with compelling documentation;

*University functions, including participation in sporting events, teams clubs academic functions, scholarly conferences)

*Illness that is documented by a doctor's note.

*Death (do not try to convince me that you are dead- I probably won't buy it) or serious illness in the immediate family.

*The observance of religious holy days - you must notate in writing the dates and names of any religious holy days that you must observe during the course of the semester and hand it into the instructor no later than two weeks in advance. (Note- if you can prove you are a robot, I will also honor Robonica.

US Service personnel and their families may receive release on a case by case basis. The Professor is very supportive of our servicemen and women and their families.

INTENTION:

I will not change or cancel class

I could not, would not, for a house.

I would not, could not, for a spouse.

I would not change them for a pox.

I would not change them for some lox.

I would not move them here or there.

I would not move them anywhere.

I would not change a scheduled class

I do not like to, so don't be crass!

Please, do not ask. Please, do not book travel. Please, inform your families they may not schedule you on trips during these times. Please, inform your employers they may not schedule you. Please, feed your family vitamins so they may be healthy on these days. Experience has shown these dates are perilous for your loved ones. Please, have no religious conversions, magic spells, alien abductions, exorcisms, bigfoot attacks, or out of body experiences on these days. Due dates, class, exams, and projects will go on without you.

Advice for care and feeding of professors- Never say the following to any instructor. Biting may occur.

1. Did we do anything important last class?
2. Will we do anything important next class?

The following are powerful incantations that can drive a professor to the dark side.

1. Do not lobby a professor for higher grades that are unearned
2. Do not ask for answers to questions that may be found in a syllabus, UCF academic calendar, or have been answered in class more than three times.
3. These dark acts have been known to transform professors into various evil creatures like banshees, ghouls, Shaun Hannity, and Donald Trump.

Attendance Policy

It is the policy of the University to reasonably accommodate absences due to observed religious holidays. The student must provide proof of observation and the student will be held responsible for any material covered during the absence. If you know of any dates you will miss due to religious observance you must inform the instructor through email during the first week of classes.

Academic Honesty

Violations of student academic behavior standards are outlined in The Golden Rule, the University of Central Florida's student handbook. See HTTP://www.ucf.edu/goldenrule/ for further details.

Plagiarism- whereby another's work is deliberately used or appropriated without any indication of the source thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student's own. Any student failing to properly credit ideas or materials taken from another source has plagiarized. Cheating- whereby non-permissible written, visual, or oral assistance including that obtained from another student is utilized on exams, course assignments, or projects. The unauthorized possession or use of examination or course related material shall also constitute cheating. A student who has assisted another in any of the aforementioned breaches of standards shall be considered equally culpable. Academic Action- Taken by Instructor, Chair, or Dean of College 1.Counseling 2.Loss of credit for the specific assignment, examination, or project 3.Removal from the course with a grade of 'F' Conduct Review Action- Taken by the Office of Student Conduct 1.Warning 2.Probation 3.Suspension 4.Expulsion 5.Permanent conduct record with UCF accessible by other institutions by request

Disability Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need accommodations in this course must contact the professor at the beginning of the semester to discuss needed accommodations. No accommodations will be provided until the student has met with the professor to request accommodations. Students who need accommodations must be registered with Student Disability Services, Student Resource Center Room 132, phone (407) 823-2371, TTY/TDD only phone (407) 823-2116, before requesting accommodations from the professor.

Any student in this course who has a disability that may prevent him or her from fully demonstrating his or her abilities should contact me personally so we can discuss accommodations necessary to ensure full participation and facilitate your educational opportunity.

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course, you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor.

Advice:

Professor Shafer's Syllabi have never included a safety section before. However, schools can no longer be considered Safe Zones. It is up to all of us to stay alert before things happen and to think through a strategy for when things do happen. I encourage you to look up UCF emergency procedures and campus safety advice. Simply be aware of your surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies. This will help keep you safe.
