

Alex Cascio '15: A Passion for Storytelling

Alex Cascio '15 has always had a passion for film and capturing special moments that told a compelling story, but it wasn't until he attended UCF that he realized he could parlay this hobby into a career path. While taking classes in marketing, advertising and accounting, he asked himself, why not combine business and storytelling? He switched his major from business administration to human communication/digital media, and forged his own path. This life-changing decision allowed him to go back to the creative space he loved so much, which eventually led to a successful career path in digital media. Read more...

A Knight of Art:
A Celebration of the CAH Alumni Chapter's 10th Annual Event, Eclectic Knights

The College of Arts and Humanities Alumni Chapter hosted its 10th annual Eclectic Knights event on September 6, 2018 at the Orlando Museum of Art (OMA). The event was in conjunction with the OMA's "1st Thursdays" monthly event, where patrons can explore local art, enjoy live music and engage with others in the community. The theme for September was UCF Eclectic Knights X and Indie Galactic Space Jam. Read more...
